Work experience

- a. I was a nonpaid youth director in three congregations.
- b. I was a pulpit minister in five congregations (Llano, Corpus Christi, Porter, Sweeney and Needville, Texas). My strengths have been in congregational building and church growth. I have preached for several gospel meetings, lectureships and seminars. I have conducted educational, church growth and leadership workshops for many years.
- c. I worked as a local missionary in the Needville church of Christ (seven and one-half years). The church started under a tree in the backyard of one of our members. It grew to over 100 from a small start. There had never been a church of Christ in Needville before because of a strong Catholic community. It was the first successful church plant in that town. We established elders, deacons and a preacher training school.
- d. I am now and have been the evangelism minister over eight years at Faith Village church of Christ. I have worked diligently to teach, train and keep as many souls as possible.
- e. I am the director of five food pantries. (Two are still in operation.)
- f. I worked part time for two years for 20th Century Christian traveling and holding workshops from Odessa, Texas, to Mississippi, while preaching at a financially struggling congregation.
- g. I have been in the ministry in churches of Christ either part time, full time, paid or nonpaid since 1973.
- h. I have assisted in bringing around 1000 souls to Christ in the U. S. All glory to God and HIS increase.

- k. I have been involved with other local campaigns.
- l. I am a writer, poet, songwriter, organizer and servant for Christ. I wrote the recently published book "I Died Last Night." (Amazon and Start to Finish Publishing).
- m. I am good at analyzing church needs and evangelism strategies.
