From the On-Site Administrator's Desk-

The phone rings. "HomeMission, this is Bud Branson." This is the way the conversation begins. Someone is inquiring about our work. I am glad to explain what we do. "Helping at-risk congregations to survive" is our story. Our program is designed to help in this way. I answer their questions, explaining the work we do. It fills my heart with joy to do so. It is a good day! I thank God for such days. May God bless us with more of them! Thank you for your concern and help!

Bud Branson, On-Site Administrator
